“ Don was a gentle Giant ! He was such a kind man, and he always welcomed anyone who came to visit with a smile. I think of his sense of humor, he loved to joke and kid around. And in case no one knew, he was the "In House Weather Man".. yes, anytime I talked to him on the phone, he always had to talk about the weather out here in Seattle, (just in case I hadn't looked out the window yet.), and he kept track of the forecasts as well for Montana and Minnesota, where other family members live.

Gee, I wonder, seeing as how he was such a coffee lover, do you think they might have some good Java up there in heaven ? I can't remember a time when I didn't see him without that cup of coffee in his hand.

Mom thought the world of Don, they sure had some good times visiting here on earth, and I bet that was one happy reunion for both of them. We have a lot of family up there now, imagine how wonderful it must be.

My heart is so heavy with sadness, it's all so surreal, and tears fall when I think of not seeing him the next time I visit Kansas.

Well Don, you took flight again, but this time you were not "Leaving on a Jet Plane"

Our Lord and Savior lifted you up in the skies, and took you to Heaven.

Heaven got another Angel !

PS: I bet the weather is just beautiful up there !

My love and prayers go out to my sister Joyce, and the rest of the family.

I'm so sorry I couldn't be with you during these very sad days.

“ I always described to people that my grandfather looked just like Hass from Bonanza.

“ I am so grateful for all the love, care, and support Don provided. He was a stalwart for our family. He was always eager to step in when there was a need, greeted us with hugs, and willingly participated in games, bowling, and even danced with us even when he didn't want to do so. There was never a doubt that he loved his kids. I will miss him until we are reunited in heaven.
