“ So many fond memories of Donna (my 2nd Mom). She liked to remind me how I knocked on her door, asking if Jill could play when I was 18 months old. A beautiful, lifelong friendship began on that day. She treated me like a daughter, as my Mom also treated Jill. She always supported our neighbourhood plays, shows and made sure we learned lessons from some of our antics. I will never forget her kindness, caring nature and sense of humour. Rest in peace beautiful lady. I love you and will never forget you.

“ Jill, your mom was my mom for a short time so many years ago. She was such a lovely, kind, gracious lady who radiated God's love. Her ready smile enveloped people like a warm hug. You are so like her...you learned from the best. I know your heart is broken, and you feel so extremely lost. My prayers are with you, Rob, Dallas, Savannah, your dad and your entire family. I ask for Him to comfort you and bring you peace with the certain knowledge that your mom has taken her rightful place in heaven. I love you so very much, sis.

“ As one of the "neighborhood moms," I remember Donna always had a smile on her face as she welcomed me into her home on many occasions. She was a huge part of my childhood and I remember her fondly. She will be greatly missed.
Hugs and prayers to the family. Keep your memories and each other close. That will be the foundation that helps you get through this sad time.

“ Donna and I used to make greeting cards together. One weekend while I was visiting in Derby, it was about midnight and we were still laughing and crafting . Lloyd, her husband, went into the kitchen and started putting ho-made bread mix into the machine. We said what are you doing that for, it takes three hours to bake. He just blew us a good night kiss and went to bed. What seemed like minutes later the bread machine beeped and the bread was done. We got a jar of jam and container of butter and sat and ate the whole thing at three am. It was a great night and one of my fondest memories with my sister. I will miss her terribly.
