Donna graduated from Turner High School in 1958. Her most rewarding career was with Nill Brothers Sporting Goods in KCK. At Nill Brothers she worked 36 years as an accountant, retiring in 2006. She thoroughly enjoyed the group at Nill Brothers.

Donna enjoyed attending and watching sports. Her favorite teams were those of her children's, grandson, and then great grandkids. If she could not make a game in her later years, she was always eager to hear about it. She also enjoyed the KC Chiefs and KU Jayhawks. She would have her game day roster cut from the KC Star ready for those Chiefs games. She was an avid reader, including her KC Star.

Survivors include daughter, Lori Jones-Fields, Kansas City, KS., son and wife, David and Leona Underwood, Kansas City, KS., grandson and wife, Kyle and Kalyn Jones, Basehor, KS., great-grandchildren, Jensen, Kennedy, Hudson and Shelby Jones, Basehor, KS. She was preceded in death by her brother,

Donna had such a wonderful smile for her family and friends. She was a caring soul, that always made time for others before herself. We will miss her immensely.

“ I’ve lived next door to Donna since 1974. She was a very kind person. I remember her mowing her grass with her push lawn mower. My husband offered to mow it with his rider. She told him she needed the exercise. She will be missed a lot.
