“ Dotty, her twin sister Chotty, and their husbands Roy and Walter were all a part of my life while growing up in Rosedale. My parents valued their friendship. I have often wondered how they were doing, where they were living, and if they were still square dancing. So sorry to hear about Dotty passing away. May her memories bring you solace and love in the weeks and months to come.

Dotty, you made me a part of your family when we lost Mom and Daddy and you became a "special" Mother in my life. I was honored to spend your last days with you and help care for you as you crossed over. You will be missed and loved very much. Get that square dance going in heaven, we'll be there when it is our time to join you.
