Dorothy was born the daughter of Julius and Bertha DeSeure on July 26, 1923 in Kansas City, Kansas. Dorothy was one of a kind and was one of the most wonderful women to grace this Earth. A perfect blend of humor, sass, and a warm heart that would always look after you and make sure you had everything you needed. Everyone who knew her will cherish the memories they had and all of the constant laughs. Her home was a place you could just show up without notice. It was a place of family and friends created by her and Omer. Her Sunday dinners created a family bond that can never be broken. Dorothy is preceded in death by her husband, Omer DeGraeve; sons, Larry and Gary DeGraeve; brothers, Frank and Joe DeSeure; and sister, Shirley Zagar. She is survived by her daughters, Linda (Max) Simmons and Lynn (Kevin) Healy; 5 grandchildren, Jason (Shelly), Jeremy (Laura), Jimmy (Lindsay), Allyson (Joe) and Hunter; and 6 great grandchildren, Jalyn, Lexi, Leeum, Gracie, Addy and Evie.
