“ Mom, the last time I saw you was summer 1997. I was nearly 18 then, now I am 35. I spent two great years with you and Dad and all the family. And you loved me like your own though I was a stranger, a foreigner, an exchange student - one of many you took under your wings. Our keeping in touch did not last as long as we wanted, I guess, both of us having to deal with our own lives and problems - and God knows there are plenty of those in one's lifetime. Nevertheless, I have kept you and Dad in my heart all these years and will continue to do so. I am ever so grateful to you. Mom, I have a beautiful baby boy Filip (25 months) and have been teaching him English since he was 2 months. My own mom passed away this June and time has been rather tough since. Now, learning about you (and Dustin) really makes my heart ache. All I hope is that you, Dad and Dustin are up there together and are catching up on everything you might have missed down here. I sure wish I had been lucky enough to see you once more. Love 4 ever and a day (that is what Dad used to say). Cat (Katerina, Czech Republic)

“ MOM... Dorothy was Mom to so many more than the children she gave birth to. She took me in as her own at a time when I needed a Mom and made me feel part of her family, no less than her own. She did that for so many. She exemplifies the word Mom. I will forever be grateful, and only hope I can be the kind of Mom to my babies as she was. I hope she knows how much she taught me about unconditional love and how much I look up to her. I owe her for making me the Mom I am today. Thank you Mom for making a job that can seem so difficult, look so easy. I'm truly grateful to have known her. All my love! - Christy

“ Although I was a great niece I was always treated like a grandchild. I love the holidays Aunt would make tons of her famous sugar cookies, I used to sneak downstairs as a child to get just one more. The chocolate syrup for pancakes and homemade pies. She would be in the kitchen for hours just so we could all come together on the holidays. I am blessed to of had Aunt Dorothy in my life. Now she is home with Uncle with their wings watching down on all of us. I love you

“ What I remember, well, there are so many but what I will never forget is that she was there for me whenever I needed her. She was one of the most selfless, compassionate, most beautiful women I have known. I remember the look on her face every year at Christmas time while watching me open my gifts in hopes I would like them. I remember her being there for me any and every time I needed her. I remember her taking care of me on days I was sick as a little girl, I remember road trips, I remember long talks, pep talks and heart to hearts. I remember her heart and her face and her hands, I remember her beauty.
