“ Huge sadness when I learned of Dorothy's passing this morning. My few short years working with Dorothy were a very bright spot in my life. She was so easy to talk with, steady as a rock, quiet sense of humor, in short a wonderful person I will always be grateful to for being my friend. Condolences to Lloyd and other family members, I know from our many conversations how much she loved and appreciated all of you. Forever in our hearts, my Friend Dorothy.

What a courageous, brave woman Dorothy was. When a person is born into this world, they don't get to pick their family, but friends are the family that you choose for yourself. I feel blessed that Dorothy chose me for a friend. I have shed many tears for her as it is my loss, but I also believe that tears are prayers without words. Dorothy ran the race, she fought the fight and kept her faith. What a wonderful witness to the world that she was a faithful wife, and wonderful friend. She has shared in the joys of my life (the birth of my daughters, marriage, graduations), and she has walked with me in the valleys of my life. I feel when she left this earth, she fell right in the arms of God who placed a jeweled crown on her head for a job well done. We will miss her and continue to love her for what she stood for and for who she was. This is not good bye! It is only until we meet you there.
