

Earl Lee Wiss

August 10, 1930 - March 15, 2025

Earl was born in Fort Dodge, IA, and had been a resident of Kansas City, KS, since 1957. He was predeceased by his wife of 63 years, Colleen, in 2019. Earl was a mechanical engineer for over two decades with Black & Veatch in Overland Park, KS. He was an Army veteran, a dog lover, and extremely handy with home repair and yard projects. He was also a talented artist who attended the Kansas City Art Institute. Earl was deeply curious and enjoyed traveling around the nation and the world, both in person and through television programs. He is survived by his daughter, Holly Snow of Kansas City, KS; his son, Christopher Wiss of New York, NY; his granddaughter, Ashleigh Snow of Denver, CO; and his sister, Sally Wiss of Fort Dodge, IA. A graveside burial will be held in August in his hometown of Fort Dodge, IA.
