“ Aunt Edith,

Thinking of you as always and remembering your smile and laugh. I, to this day, am still in shock that you are not with us anymore.

Seems like yesterday when we were all at your house for 4th of July. Bon fires in the street after all the fireworks were done. Now that was a true country-style party. The neighborhood isn't the same without you and your generation, but I still remember the original "Seifert Hill". It truly was a happier time back then and I smile (also in my heart) when I think of those days. I heard your favorite Christmas song the other day on the radio-I'll Be Home For Christmas. I immediately thought of you. May you rest in peace and enjoy your walks with God and Jesus.

I love you.

Your niece,

Sandra Dale

“ Mom, Happy Mother's Day! I miss you so much, wish I can say our visit the other day at the cemetery was nice but you know how that turned out! Sorry about that! You remember when I was around 20 or 21 we both needed a break and we took that mini vacation to the nearest holiday inn that one afternoon? We played uno, ordered movies, and room service,. I even got you to drink a couple of glasses of wine with me. The next morning we ordered room service again God we spent a fortune but we waited till the very last minute to leave we had so much fun! We didn't want to go. I wanted so badly to have a repeat of that time with you. We did have a lot of fun together mom! How bout the time we stayed up for almost 30 hours straight that one summer playing asteroids on Atari! We were so competitive! We both fell hard when we finally went to bed, I had blisters from that marathon.Lol! Thanks Mom for giving me these memories, but my heart hurts so bad at times see you weren't only my mom you were my best friend sadly really my only friend,so I really do know what to do with myself anymore, sure I have my family now and I'm so grateful and love them so much! You mom you are irreplaceable! I love you, and miss you dearly.

“ Mom, I can't believe it's been a year already, I miss you so much! I never knew my heart could hurt so bad till I lost you, but I know your at peace Mom. I feel like your good, happy! I have Faith mom you are having such blessings, just like we talked, and hoped, and prayed for you. I'm so thankful mom you were good with the Lord, that I didn't have to worry over your soul. You just made that part of letting you go so much easier, knowing you were going to good hands. And by daddy's side at that! Mom watch over us all! Please, Yeap we all still need you! You will always be in my heart. Till that day comes when we are together again, I will always be thinking and loving you! Thank you for taking care of my mother God, she is a special lady! Love Always, Tina

“ Mom, I miss you so much, Yeap today is one of those days I need you. But I'm thankful you no longer have to put up with the craziness of it anymore. I still pray, and forgive mom, just like you and the good Lord taught me. Please mom if you can I could really use your comfort right now, be with us all. Thank God for looking after Brandy the other day when she got in her wreck, it would kill me to loose my little girl too! I know you were with her as well. Thanks Mom! Well you predicted how everything would be after you were gone. Looks like you were right on point mom, sad really, but you knew,guess I was hopping for a miracle, still am! Lol! I love you so much It hurts to breathe at times, amazing how close we became, you seemed so standoffish or scared of that little 6 year old that one day moved in. With awkwardness through a few years, I was relentless,telling you each night how much I loved you, I broke through your barrier, I was too darn cute! Lol! we became more than mother and daughter, we became the bestest of friends. Thank you, for your love you gave me and the love I still feel. I will cherish it forever! Your Christmas will be blessed sitting with Jesus. We love and miss you, if you can we all can use a little help with the comfort part so put a word in as well. Thanks Mom. Until we talk again sing and dance with the angles, get dad to cut a rug with you, he'll take you for a twirl!

“ Mom, these last few months showed me more how to live, than how to die. She had such strength, and sharp wit that laughter is the best medicine, the woman had a sense of humor! She was my best friend, I am forever grateful for all the woman has done for me in my life. Mom will be truly missed and the pain of her absence will be long to fade. The love will always remain she reminded me of that today she may be gone, but yet, still with me. Thanks mom. Love Forever, Tina

Edith left this world knowing she was loved as evidenced by the family gathered together during her last days. However, Edith wanted you all together not for her so much as it was for you to be there and hold each other strong. She knew how hard this was going to be for all of you and how you were going to need each other to get through the tough days ahead of missing her. You gave her the only thing she desired and that was to be at peace and at home surrounded by those she loved so dearly. Bless you all for making that happen. I will never forget her. One very funny, smart, cool lady. Thank you for the honor of letting me be a part of the team to care for her. Nurse Nancy of Grace Hospice.
