

Edna Marie (Huber) Place

April 9, 1928 - July 24, 2017

Edna Marie(Huber) Place of Kansas City, Kansas passed away Monday, July 24, 2017 surrounded by five generations of her family in Warsaw, MO. Edna was born April 9, 1928 in Hodge, MO to Phillip Richard Huber and Sadie Ripley Huber. She met the love of her life, Denzel Place in 1944 while working at the Warsaw Hotel and Cafe where her beautiful red hair caught his eye, while he was sweeping the floors across the street. They wed on September 11, 1948.

Edna was a terrific wife, mother and grandmother. She was devoted to her children and even learned to drive to take them back and forth to school. She was a seamstress for most of her life. She worked at Gay Gibson as a suit designer. She retired from Artex as a night supervisor.

Denzel and Edna were very active in the Abdallah Shrine Temple. Edna was an "Eastern Star", "Shrine Lady" and most importantly a "Lady of The Oriental Band". She would be involved with some sort of activity at the Temple 4-6 nights a week until her health started to fail her.

Edna was preceded in death by her daughter Paulette Berberick; son Richard Place; and great-great grandchildren Gwendolyn Nicole Smith.

She is survived by her of husband of 69 years, Denzel Place and daughter

Denise Place both of the home; her baby brother, Phillip "Dickie" Huber; grandchildren, great grandchildren and great-great grandchildren.

Edna's large family and her numerous friends will always remember her and the impact she left on the lives of everyone she met.

A visitation will be from 1-2:00 P.M. Thursday, July 27th, 2017 at Maple Hill Funeral Home. Funeral Services will be 2 P.M. Thursday, July 27th, 2017 at Maple Hill Funeral Home in KCK with the burial to follow at Chapel Hill Memorial Gardens in KCK. In lieu of flowers, please make donations to the Shriner's Hospitals for Children, 2900 Rocky Point Dr. Tampa, FL 33607
