“ We met Ed in 1968 during a time when there was much chaos all around us both in the nation and at home. He became a father figure to me and never once let me down, always full of encouragement and good happy memories, helped me buy good furniture, got my first hope chest at graduation and many other needs for my first home and Childrens bedrooms. I saw him every year or called until his last 2 years so I miss him dearly! I miss his theatrical flare and great smiles and of course his big hugs!! RIP my soul blessed dad!! Thank you for always being there for me!!

“ Ed was my father Albert Blackmore's best friend growing up on The Hill. Ed left a coin on my father's headstone every week since Dad passed away in 1977 until Ed couldn't make it to the cemetery anymore. We watched Ed perform at the Missouri Rep in the 70s as well as in Olathe later on. A real Renaissance Man of Rosedale. I told Ed a few years ago when he finally retired and closed up the Sleep Shoppe how much I appreciated the fact that he came to see my mother every Christmas season. He would bring some snack type gifts but what he really brought with him was a piece of my Dad. I know one thing, if there is a heaven and I hope there is, Ed and Albert are sitting back and having a well deserved chat. Thanks for being a good man to my family Mr. Ed McCabe. Godspeed

“ My Godfather...I loved watching him act at the Olathe Community Theatre Association,...I loved visiting him at 40 Winks...I loved it when he called me by the nickname he gave me, "Gravy." I loved hearing my father tell me about Ed's crazy stories and his "run ins" with the KC Mob! I loved this sweet, humble, and inspirational man! You'll forever be a part of my heart and soul, Ed. Thank you for being my godfather and an exceptional role model! See you on down the line! Love you!
