“ Elsie was truly one of the most genuine people I have ever had the privilege of knowing. Her love for her family, particularly her children, grandchildren, and those within her sphere of influence, was sincere and unwavering. I will forever hold onto the memory of Elsie's selflessness and willingness to give of herself to those in need. Elsie will be missed but never forgotten as her legacy continues to shine bright forever. My deepest condolences and continued prayers for the family.

“ Elsie was always so gracious and patient to correct any mistakes I made to requisition forms over the years. I could always look forward to chatting with her when I went to her desk with a question, and she would show photos and share stories of her grandkids. Not only was she great at her job in finance, but she was the kindest co-worker who always greeted everyone with a smile. We will miss her dearly. Wishing the entire family peace and healing through this difficult time.

“ Elsie was such a kind person. I remember on days when it was someone's birthday, she made either her egg burritos or her famous potato enchiladas as well as her salsa and guacamole. No one could cook like her. She was very crafty. I have several of her wreaths that she made me. She will not be forgotten. Linda Miller
