

Frances L. Howard

January 15, 1946 - April 15, 2025

Frances L. Howard, 79, of Kansas City, Kansas, passed away peacefully at her home on April 15, 2025. Born January 15, 1946, in Kansas City, Kansas, Frances was the daughter of Francis and Meredith Long. She dedicated over 30 years of service to the Turner School District, retiring as a beloved cafeteria manager. Frances was known for her easygoing nature and her eagerness to spend time with those she loved. Whether it was sewing, camping, cheering on her favorite sports teams, or simply enjoying a good laugh, she embraced life's simple joys. She had a special place in her heart for her loyal dog, Buddy, and was a devoted member of Stony Point Christian Church. She was preceded in death by her husband, Billy Howard, her parents, and seven siblings. Frances is survived by her children, Meredith Casares (Wes Simmons) and Jake Worley; grandchildren Morgan, Ronnie, Aleah, and Gabriel; seven great-grandchildren; and her brother, Wally Long (Terri). A Celebration of Life will be held on Friday, April 25, 2025, 10:00 AM, at Stony Point Christian Church. Burial will follow at Maple Hill Cemetery, 2301 S. 34th St., Kansas City, KS 66106.
