“ I played the piano at the retirement home where "Poncho" resided. He never missed a time when I was there to entertain the residents. I'm so glad I had a chance to meet him and share my talent. I use to "kid" he and the other men at the table. I would say, "Ok, you know all these men sitting at one table is big trouble." He would always smile and laugh! He would share stories with me about the piano that he had in his home. I could tell he loved music!

My deepest sympathy to his family. May his memory be a blessing!

“ My prayers are with the family. Frank coached our teams at St. John's back in the day and he always treated us with great respect and firmness. I am sorry I missed the funeral: I would have loved to share my story of the time he broke up a fight that I was involved in during a basketball practice one evening. Whenever I saw Frank at Mass in later years he always had a kind smile for me. What a great blessing Frank was to all.

“ Losing loved ones is never easy and is especially hard when you had planned a family gathering for Christmas. I hope you can take comfort in knowing that God had other plans for Pancho. As much as we all would like for him to be here by our side, God decided to take him to his final home. I like to think that this was God's Christmas gift to Grandma and Grandpa DeSeure (Bertha and Pete), to his wife, Eileen, to his brother Joe, and to his many, many, relatives that have also left us, Omar, Joe and Louise, Al and Betty, Alice, Vic and Gayle, and so many others. My deepest sympathy to all of his family and friends. He fought a good fight and will be missed.

“ Uncle Frankie was such a delight! He will be missed by his family. Loved to tease him on how long he had been getting a pension from the PO. Just the other day I found pictures of when you all came to visit us in Big Sky, Montana. Love to you all Bill and Roberta Crew

“ I have such fond memories of my Uncle Frankie and Aunt Eileen. My father, James (Eileen's brother) was always so jealous of Frankie because he had so much more hair than he did! Such an honor to have had such a kind and caring uncle.
