“ Frankie was my beautiful and dear sister. We were close growing up together and she is dearly missed. Frankie loved her husband and family dearly. Nature was her passion and she made beauty wherever she went with plants, flowers, decor and fashion. I am forever grateful that trees have been planted in her memory. She would be honored for your thoughtfulness. I loved her with everything I am. I'm forever grateful for the love she showered upon me. She was magical, magnificent and beautiful. When I look at flowers, I think of her. I'm right here, until she comes to take me home with her. Catherine Taylor
