“ So sorry for you loss. I knew George thru Bettie and she spoke highly of him. Met him once and found him to be a very nice man. He is at rest now and free from pain. May God bless him.

“ George was a good man. We used to live next door to him. He was what you call a good neighbor. You don't meet people like him anymore. He was always helping someone in need and could fix anything. Condolences to his family. I am sure he will be missed greatly.
