“ I have pondered what to say ...anticipated capturing all that is possible...all I'm left with is what comes to mind...
I hear his voice...that stands out the most in my memories.
He was a dedicated family man, a hard worker and took pride in everything he did although you would not know it due to his humble upbringing. He loved to garden and tended to his cows. His PIC was CHIEF and he was always at his side.
He liked to razz all that knew him; was quite the character and the epitome of orneriness.
Just know you will be thought of often and missed even more.
Until we meet again...
KEEP IT REAL for those that surround you, I know you will.
Love forever and always...

“ We'll never forget how George came to the rescue when we were working on the house as amateurs and got in over our heads. George and Jim came over just in the nick of time. We were so grateful and went to pay them, but had to work hard to get him and Jim to accept it. I'm afraid we offended them, but they stayed friendly. Thank goodness. That is such a rare thing. We will always remember George as the kind soul he was and willing to help anybody as he did. He will be missed. George was a good man and we are fortunate to have known him. We share this loss with his family and friends. Rest in peace, my friend. Steve and Gale

“ Linda and family. We share your loss and are thinking of all of you now. Just learned of George's passing and cannot be there with you except in spirit. I do remember some of the things George and I did as we grew up on the State Ave. market or visiting Uncle Fred and aunt Loretta.

Farewell George as you once again join your father and your mother. Whether just visiting at family reunions, auctions or other occasion I have always had a great respect for you. Your stories, statements. silent looks, warm smile and genuine handshake. will be greatly missed. I have always been proud to call you my cousin for the full 75 years we had together.

George was a salt of the earth man.

Pat and I send our most sincere condolences to Linda, their children and grandchildren, brother and sisters. The memoires of George no longer will be added to; but, wow, what great memories of the paste we have to share.
