

Gladys Pauline Maike

September 15, 1941 - May 28, 2023

With heavy hearts and profound gratitude, we honor the life and legacy of Gladys Maike. She was a woman of unwavering faith, whose love for God and her family served as a guiding light throughout her remarkable journey. Together, we celebrate her life lived in devotion to her faith, and the immeasurable impact she had on all who knew her. Born on September 15, 1941, Gladys was a beacon of strength and a source of inspiration to all who crossed her path. She embraced her faith with unwavering conviction, living out the teachings of her Lord and Savior in every aspect of her life. Her devotion to prayer, worship, and scripture was evident in her unwavering trust in God's plan and her steadfast belief in His unfailing love. As the matriarch of our family, she nurtured us with a love that knew no bounds. Her unwavering love and guidance provided us with a firm foundation in our own journeys. Through her words of wisdom, her gentle touch, and her warm embrace she instilled in us the values of compassion, forgiveness, and unwavering love for one another. Her home was a sanctuary where all were welcomed and embraced. Gladys not only lived her faith within the walls of her home but also in her service to others. She selflessly dedicated her time and energy to her church and community, tirelessly giving of herself to those in need. Whether she was visiting the sick, comforting the lonely, or lending a helping hand to those less fortunate, her compassion and generosity knew no bounds. She embodied the true essence of a servant of God, demonstrating love in action to all she encountered. Her unwavering faith sustained her through life's trials and tribulations In moments of joy, she praised God, and in moments of sorrow, she sought solace in His comforting embrace. She believed that every challenge was an opportunity for growth and viewed her trials as a testament to her faith. She taught us to trust in God's plan, even in the midst of uncertainty, and to find strength in the power of prayer. Today, as we bid farewell to our beloved Matriarch, we find solace in the knowledge that she has been called home to her eternal rest. We are comforted by the belief that she now dwells in the loving arms of her Heavenly Father, reunited with loved ones who have gone before her. Though we grieve her physical absence, we take solace in the assurance that her spirit will forever guide and protect us. Gladys leaves behind a profound legacy of faith, love, and devotion. Her unwavering commitment to her faith has left an indelible mark on our lives, inspiring us to carry forward the torch of love she lit within our hearts She will forever remain cherished and beloved. We give thanks for the gift of her life, her unwavering faith, and the love she shared so generously. May her soul find eternal peace in the presence of her Savior, and may her memory continue to inspire and guide us until we are reunited. With love and reverence, Mike Rogers, Terri Rogers, and her entire family.

A memorial service will be held on Wednesday, June 7, at 1:00 P.M. at Maple Hill Funeral Home.

“ Sending prayers of comfort and peace to the family. Gladys was a member of the Volunteer Auxiliary at INTEGRIS Grove Hospital for nearly 20 years! She greeted hundreds of people with her beautiful smile and friendly personality when she worked at the Information desk. She will be fondly remembered as one of the sweetest, kindest (and fun!) ladies ever. /ct
