She was so proud of all their accomplishments.

We will miss all the amazing food she provided at family gatherings and the hospitality of opening her home for others to visit. We will cherish the special gifts she made by hand for us for special occasions or just to show us how much she loved each of us. She was a devout Catholic, always attending Saturday afternoon mass with her husband, children, and grandchildren.

“ Even when she clearly did not feel very well you could never tell in her voice. She always had a smile and a cheery attitude. You could forget how she might have really been physically because her spirit was clearly happy and at peace. Although I am filled with sorrow to hear she is gone that smile in her voice still lives on and the memories she made, lessons she taught and people she touched all move around us and through us. To the family ...you are so blessed to have had her for this time on earth make sure you touch others with what she has left you with! Amen

“ I am deeply saddened for the loss of an extraordinary person, Gloria Villegas. Her son, Ralph, and I have been best friends for over 35 years. Gloria reminded me a lot of my mother, which is why it was so easy to gravitate to her. Her kind, beautiful and gentle spirit was evident in everything she did and in the lives of the people she touched. I will always love her and forever be thankful she was one of my mothers.
