“ Denise and family,

There are no words to ease your pain right now. I am so sorry you are going thru this. May you find some peace knowing your Mom is watching over you, shining bright from above. Hold tight to your memories; on the darkest days they will bring some light. Continued prayers for strength during this difficult time.

“ To the Olivas family: I am so sorry for your unexpected loss. Words can not begin to express the heartache you have endured during the passing of Graciela. May the wonderful memories of your mother and the strong family bond you all share get you through the next few weeks as I know it will be extremely tough. To Sandra: please know I am here for you for whatever it is you all may need & I am thankful for the wonderful freindship we share.
