“ Oh My Goodness, I'm so sorry to hear of Greg's passing. It has been many many years since I've seen or talked with you. Linda, you watched my son James Ronnau as a baby. Greg built a wonderful addition and deck to our house. What a truly nice and talented man. You are in our thoughts and memories. Prayers to you all. Barb and John Ronnau

“ I am so sorry for your loss! Greg was a classmate of mine at Wyandotte High School class of 75! Prayers to the family! 🙏

“ I went to Wyandotte HS with Greg -- we sat kitty-cornered across the table from each other in Geometry. His humor always set him apart. He was a bit of a rascal!

There were actually TWO Greg Soptics at Wyandotte and when he first contacted me on FB, I asked "Which Greg Soptic are you?" Now, : "The Other GS" was MUCH different. He was a good bit taller and broader, he had much darker hair. "The Other" actually left Wyandotte when Schlagle opened. AND he'd been trapped under the rubble with a broken back when the walkways collapsed at the Hyatt Regency. There were a LOT of differences!!

But Greg's almost instantaneous answer was, "I'm the good looking one!" In my head, I immediately saw his teasing grin and knew, without question, who I was talking to!!

Please know, he was fiercely loyal and proud of his family. The world is dimmer for his passing.
