“ Greg was a true selfless servant! He welcomed me to the fire station each time I stopped by to visit. We shared good natured Jokes about firemen and police officers, yet we both knew he had the best job! I worked with him on side jobs and learned a great deal from him. I'll miss ya brother! Thanks for the memories...

“ Greg was great firefighter, a great friend, and always fun to work with around the station. In tuff situations he was always up beat and and ready to go. Greg was a leader and a teacher. I learned a lot from him. Excellent job old friend. I'll see you on opening day of trout season down on Turkey Creek. Rest Easy.
