“ *Some times, Greggie would call his uncle's office to talk to his MeMaw and if I happened to answer the phone, we would chat about different things, like his laptop, places to eat out, his adventures at the boat (and wow was he lucky at that)!!! He would always ask about my family (because he had met some of them and had spent some times together on occasion). He would always remind me to tell them hello. Greggie had a beautiful and sweet spirit and I will always remember the gentle young man that he was and the smiles he brought to those he met and knew him. Peace and comfort to his family. “ *Some times, Greggie would call his uncle's office to talk with his McMaw and if I happened to answer the phone we would chat about different things, like his laptop, places to eat out, his adventures at the boat. Oh, he loved the boat (and was always lucky every time he went)!!! He would always ask about my family (because he had met some of them; we'd all spent some time together) and he would always remind me to tell them hello. Greggie had a beautiful spirit and I will always remember the gentle young man that he was and the smiles he brought to those who knew him. Peace, comfort and prayers to his family.
