“ Aunt Lupe was a wonderful part of our family and had a wonderful spirit of happiness. She enjoyed being with family and more often than not she was laughing out loud.

“ Mom loved all her family and friends. Mom also loved her Lutheran friends and pastor. She celebrated her life with much love to everyone and taught us how to share our love towards each other. Although I moved Mom to St. Louis she never forgot anyone. Thank you for the cards and phone calls and visits while Mom was in St. Louis she really appreciated them. I will miss her dearly. I was happy to care for her and was able to kiss her everyday and hug her as well, this meant everything to me. Rest with God always, your daughter, Maria.
