“ To one of the kindest, gentlest, most handsome men I've ever known, who also just happened to be my favorite uncle. From the way my childhood girl friends would swoon when I introduced them to you, to your hearty "hey babe!" when I ran to hug you, you will be sorely missed. You live on in everyone who had the pleasure to know and love you. Words can't express how proud I am to carry your middle name as mine. Forever and always, I love you.

“ Howard was one of the finest men I have every known. He was kind, sincere, generous, fun loving and a man of many talents. He always had a smile with a twinkle in his eye, a warm hug, a kiss and I knew I was loved and safe as I know everyone did in his embrace. My heart aches with his passing, but I am relieved that he is finally at peace and in the hands of his loving God. Mary, your care of Howard through this tragedy is truly commendable. An inspiration and a reflection of the love you and he share. He will be missed and always close in my thoughts and prayers.

Your loving cousin,
Terry
