“ We all love Jean, she is an Aunt to us. My husband grew up with her and then my kids grew up with her at all our holidays and birthdays. She was a beautiful, loving person and we will all miss her dearly. We know we will reunite with her in heaven someday. Much love from Tom and Audrea, Taylor and Samuel Griggs

“ Ms. Jean became a family friend sometime when she was in her late 70's or early 80's. My wife was a caretaker for her sister (June McClain). We got to know her through Ms. June. We tried to make it up to Kansas City to visit her at least once a year and sometimes go to a Chiefs game. Ms. Jean actually went with us to a game sometime around her mid 80's (Wow). She absolutely loved when Me, Sheri, and Tanner and Tanner's friends would come visit her. After Sheri passed away, Me and Tanner tried to get back up there to see her but we never could make it. This makes me sad. Ms. Jean was such an awesome lady and we will always have her memories. But what a great reunion she is having with her husband, sister and the rest of her family, and of course with Sheri Rich. We love you and will miss you until we meet again. As she would always say "Go Hogs"!

“ Genie was a fun, kind-hearted woman. She loved sports, especially Mahomes and her Arkansas Razorbacks. Her love of pigs was evident by all the pig and hog statues and art around her home. My grandkids once tried to count all the pigs in her house once. It was definitely over 25. Genie said she hoped they wouldn't remember her as the “pig lady”. She always made me laugh. God bless you, Genie. I'm glad you're at peace with our Lord and reunited with Willy.
