“ Although I did not get to know Iris as well as I would have liked, I want to share the everlasting memory she left on my heart. Iris and I only spoke a few words in our time together, I did get to see her whitty humor!!! The memory made was that of her loving children, the kind words they all spoke of her, the endless hours they sat by her bed saying "she would do the same for us." Watching them try to understand how someone so full of life can change so quickly, and to continue to have faith in those hardest days. I feel your mom would be so proud of each of you for your care and compassion. You each have a very special angel looking over you. Blessed to have been a part of it.

“ Iris was one very special lady. She always looked at things with a very open and accepting vision. She lived a very full life. Now is her time to go be with the loved ones that she has lost. She will always live on in the hearts of her family, friends and anyone that she ever came in contact with. Iris you will be missed here but it is time for you to begin a new, exciting journey. Love you.
