“ When I first met this man 44 years ago. He was at the home place in Hannibal, throwing horseshoes with his Dad and brother's. When his son, Jack jr. Introduced me he smiled, hugged me and said good to meet you, you can call me Dad. Made me feel like family from the start. I love you Dad, best father in law a girl could have.

“ My dad, Daniel Joseph Damron, died on 1/15/2000, on his brother's birthday, Jack Ray Damron. And now, he will join his older brother in heaven to rejoice together and share their memories here on earth. Praying for the family during this difficult time, wishing I could be there to say good bye. I will never forget the wonderful memories of the Damron family reunions at Grandma and Grandpa Damron's with their 5 children, spouses and cousins everywhere! RIP Uncle Jack

You can close your eyes and pray that he will come back, or you can open your eyes and see all that he has left.

Your heart can be empty because you can't see him,
or you can be full of the love that you shared.
You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday,
or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday.

You can remember him and only that he is gone, or you can cherish his memory and let it live on.

“ I always enjoyed visiting with Grandpa Jack. We were grateful to have him as part of our Parker Elementary Family. He warmed many little hearts as a watchdog! Thankful for his "service" throughout his lifetime. We will miss him. Prayers for all of your family Julie.
