“ I meet the most amazing people only after a serious life-limiting illness has been diagnosed. Jack was definitely one of a kind! I enjoyed my visits with him each and every time! "Hey Hey!" he would say as I walked into the room where he was stationed in his chair. He truly was my best patient ever! I will always carry a piece of him in my heart May the family be at peace knowing he has finished the journey to the stairway to heaven as I would always say to him and has been reunited with this loving wife for eternity.
