“ I worked with Jack back in the late 80’s & early 90’s. He was friendly, a mentor to others, and a dependable coworker, but also became a friend. We shared a love of golf and humor regardless at whose expense. Sadly, our careers and lives diverged, but we kept tabs on each other over the years directly or through mutual friends. I’m certain that many of our coworker/friends are not aware of his passing last year. I too am saddened that I had not checked on him since before the pandemic. He is remembered fondly and lovingly by many.

“ Jack was such a large piece of my childhood, not only as a softball coach but as a family friend. His laughter and smile was ever present. He required we ALWAYS tuck in our shirts and display good sportsmanship. I’m grateful for the opportunity to know him and for the lasting friendship he gave to my Dad. My thoughts and prayers are with the family.
