“ I'll never forget Uncle Jim! I have memories of Kim and I having sleepovers at each other's houses and at grandma Easley's too of course and all our family dinners together. Uncle Jim was always so sweet and so funny too. He was a great man who loved you guys so much! And we all loved him! We spent so much time together as kids Kim, I'll always treasure those times with our parents and all of us together! I know how hard this is on you Aunt Pam and Kim and the rest of the family! I hope dad and Uncle Jim are up there together reminiscing and we know they'll be watching over all of us. It's so hard to be sick for so long, Rest In Peace Uncle Jim! Kim and Aunt Pam, mom and I are here always and if you need anything at all! We love you guys so much!

“ Some of our favorite memories are going to the movies together. It was something we truly looked forward to, but there was one time in particular that stands out and that was when we snuck burgers in and the whole theater smelled like onions. We still get a good giggle out of that. Thank God for memories! We love you.

“ Jim was a fun and crazy brother in law to Mark and I. Couldn't believe his giant televisions. But that made him happy. So glad Jim and you, Pam, got to travel and play the odds and win money. LOL!! So sorry Jim was sick for so long. He wasn't the Jim we used to know. I know it was hard on you, Pam and the family. I know you all will miss him. Just remember that you have wonderful memories with him and of him. We will miss him too. Call on me any time. Love you!!

Pam and Kim, This is April 6, 2025 and I just found out about Uncle Jimmy. I was never as close to him as I would have wanted, but he was always a bigger than life person to me, and someone I always looked up to and loved. He was such a great athlete and as a person, no one was bigger than him. Love, Larry Doyle. PS; He was only one or two years older than me, but I always idolized him.
