

James William Robbins Jr.

March 5, 1956 - December 1, 2022

James William Robbins, Jr., 66, of Harrisonville, Mo passed away on December 1, 2022 of health complications.

Jim was born to James (Bill) and Wanda Robbins on March 5th, 1956. He was raised in the Highland Crest neighborhood of the Turner School District in Kansas City, KS and graduated from Turner High School in 1974.

Jim had many interests, but chief among them were muscle cars, enjoying the company of friends and family, and the Kansas City Chiefs. He was known by those close to him as a walking encyclopedia and a very handy man. His biggest life commitment was his faith in Jesus Christ. He studied at Beacon University to attain his master's degree equivalency in Christian theology. He is preceded in death by his parents James and Wanda Robbins. Jim is survived by his son Randel Robbins; daughters Angela and Holly Robbins; Grandchildren Yosef, Hanokh, Shimon, Udiyah, and Mattai Robbins, and his brothers Ray and Jeff Robbins.
