Jamie was a wonderful person just in and out her innocence was bliss. Growing up with her as my sister was awesome she always loved with all her heart I didn't know one single person who didn't love her. She may have been handicap but never stopped her from being happy and she loved her job I truly believe jcds and everyone who worked with her made her the strongest woman I knew. Growing up as her little sister she was so onrey she loved to make me scream by hiding my wooby and she crawled a lot I remember walking by her and she would grab my ankle and I'd fall to the ground cause you know she didn't just grab me and let go she held on so there was no catching my fall. Someone asked me the other day if I ever wondered what life would be like with her normal and I have to say I don't think I really did. That was my sister. I'm gonna miss her so much we got so close these past few years and my fiancé Waylon and his family are going to miss her so much our holidays will never be the same and her smile will always remain forever in our hearts and all the pictures we have with her smile so happy and full our memories are forever with us I love you Jamie Ann. Her love for her family and her twin brother jimi will always cherish the bond we had with her and her legacy remains
