“ Death is the hardest thing we all face in life. It is never easy or welcome and it is devastating when its your parent or child. I lost both of my parents by age 25. I can tell you from experience do not dwell on how long she suffered or on her passing, depression can set in and put you in a place you don't want to go. Cherish the great memories. Your Mom would not want you to be unhappy and stop living your life. Take time for yourself, cry, scream, do whatever you need to release your anger ( but not drugs or alcohol,that is not the answer.) I knew your parents sense I was 12-13 yrs old. If not for your Father I would have never met Tom, married and had 3 amazing kids. Live your lives to make your parents proud, they are watching you. Know that they are in a place we can only imagine its beauty, with no pain, tears or sorrow only peace. God bless each of you at this difficult time. Please know many share your grief. Your parents were wonderful life long friends, that are sincerely missed.

“ I am so very sorry for your loss, for it is a great one. I had worked with Jan for many years, mostly by phone and e-mail from Wichita. She was always helpful, generous, and kind. She would always go out of her way to assist me and others and to make sure the task was taken care of correctly. She was so much fun to work with and she will be missed by all who knew her.

“ I met Mike and Janet in 1970 at the age of 16. I was dating Bobby Bachert and she was dating Mike. We partied together, married together, had babies together and remained friends even after Bobby and I parted ways in 1984. We played cards, had barbecues and watched each others children grow, marry and have children of their own. I always loved Janet like a sister. She was one of the sweetest most understanding and loveable people that I have ever had the pleasure of knowing and I will miss her. She was a wonderful Mother and Grandmother and loved her family. She and Mike died much too young. She never got over losing him and I know she is thrilled to be with him now, I love you, Janet. Bonnie Robertson
