

Jay Huffman

May 6, 1985 - February 20, 2023

James "Jay" Scott Huffman was born on May 6, 1985 in Kansas City, Kansas. He passed away on February 20, 2023 in Kansas City, Kansas.

Jay had a quick wit and sarcasm was his second language. As with most of the family, he was a big movie fan with a soft spot for romantic comedies. Jay spent a lot of his time playing table top games as well as many computer and video games. He was a huge Chiefs fan and was overjoyed with their recent Super Bowl win this year.

Jay is survived by his mother, Angela Padgett; father, John (Dianna) Huffman; brother, David Huffman; step-sister, Heather Padgett; grandparents, John (Sharon) Huffman and Jimmie (Brenda) Caudle; nieces, Zoe and Layla; nephew, Rene; six aunts; one uncle; and eighteen first cousins.

Jay is preceded in death by cousin, Jimmie Huffman; grandparents Robert (Judy) Rumford; uncle Michael Huffman; and stepfather, Richard Padgett.

“ Ghost Buster will always remind me about Jay. He really liked the show and had some of the action figures. The best part was when he started calling Mom, Granny Gross Ghost. He laughed and called her that for days.

Jay was a member of our Table Top Fantasy Football League. He was competitive but always gracious and never missed a chance to play a game. We are shocked and saddened to learn of his passing. Our condolences to the his family.
