

Jeremy Masuch

April 12, 1979 - October 6, 2021

“I want you to be happy. I want you to laugh a lot. I don’t know what exactly I’ll be able to do for you, but I’ll always be by your side”-Kagome Higurashi

Jeremy S. Masuch, 42, passed in the early morning of October 6th, 2021. Jeremy was born on April 12, 1979 in the Golden state of California to Kathryn and Ricky Masuch. Jeremy is preceded in death by his Father Ricky L. Masuch, both paternal and fraternal grandparents. He is survived by the love of his life Heather and his four extraordinary children; Zohreyha, Gabriel, Kiaya, and Xander. Jeremy also leaves behind his two fur babies Hachi and Shiro Kuma. Lastly, he is survived by his beloved mother Kathryn M.L. Masuch and five siblings Amber, Mathew, Kristoffer, Corbin, and Shaina. Jeremy was a knowledgeable and motivated worker in law enforcement, an avid motorcyclist, pc and console video game enthusiast, and an Otaku. Jeremy always made sure as life went forward his children were cultured in all things film, places, and music. Making sure his children could finish his movie and music quotes we could swear was one of his unspoken goals in life. His wife Heather has brought patience, love, and softness into Jeremy's life at the young age of fifteen. They built a life young and learned with and from each-other how to navigate each stepping stone and hurdle they needed to climb together. Heather continually pushed Jeremy to achieve all that he wanted in life and within himself. Jeremy and Heather will always have a special bond in life and eternity that is unmatched by any other couple.

Jeremy found his motivation in life from his wife and more with each child as they were born over the years. Jeremy was a strong willed father who would always make sure his children knew right from wrong but that they also learned some lessons on their own and gained their independence.

Jeremy will forever be loved and remembered by all his family, friends and all of those who have worked with him. Jeremy has always made sure to leave an imprint on every person he came into contact with, even strangers throughout Kansas.

“ Our first born, beautiful blond haired, blue eyed, bouncing baby boy! At 18 & 20 your Father and I saw your brilliance and shine, from your first cry. You looked around at the world, and at us, and decided this world would never be the same, from this moment on, and it never was. You were an amazing gift and a serious challenge to your dad and myself, and we did all that we could to set you on a path, worthy of your bright Spirit! You took the tail of this world and shook it until it became what you wanted it to be. You met Heather Weishaar (the biggest blessing of yours and our lives. She loved you, heart and soul, and together, you bestowed our greatest gift of our first grandchild Zoreyha ( boy did she steel that heart ( that you wanted everyone to believe that you didn't have!) LOL 😂 I think that you had one of the biggest and softest hearts, out of all of us, (which you would have a fit for me letting others know!) You loved deeply, and completely, each of your precious little ones, Zoreyha, Gabriel, Kaiya, and last but not least the sweet hearted Xander! Each of your progeny have brought me years of happiness, for which I am truly grateful for! You had perhaps reached the peak of your happiness summit, as I witnessed the pure joy that you reveled in when you were with your family and especially biking with you wife, children and your brother Corbin. You passed into Heaven's glory quickly and too soon for those of us who we're left behind, but in a manner befitting the shooting star, that was my precious Son! May the Lord bless and keep, your amazing Family, and help to ease their pain and loss! 🙏 I know you are in your glory, Son. I know that your Father and Grandparents are rejoicing, but it's a different story for those of us who grieve the loss of you, deeply. I know that one day, I will once again hold that amazingly beautiful soul in my arms one day (hopefully soon!) But for now, enjoy your glory in Heaven, (you my dear one) have more than earned your rest. Momma loves you, like a fat kid, loves cake (for all eternity!) 💔
