“ Dear Aaron and Family All,

Sorry to hear of the death of your father, Mr. Jesse Junior Wilson. We will surely keep you, him and the family in our prayers and thoughts. May Jesus welcome him into His loving embrace and bring deep peace and comfort to you and the family at this time. I know he is proud of you and your strong faith, which is touching the lives of all who know you, ours included. Love, prayers and good health, Fr. Dennis Wait and the Tuesday Prayer Group at Sanctuary of Hope Retreat Center in KC,KS. PS, Another "Jesse" (Jesus) is home with The Father!

“ Jesse will truly be missed by our family. He was married to my mother in law in 1988 until she passed away in 2005. He was the BEST!! He was so good to her. He spoiled her rotten!! He treated us just like we were his own. He was a hard worker and never complained about anything, just kept going. You never knew when he was going to burst out with a donkey song!! I know there were times she wanted to crawl under a chair or something to hide from embarrassment, but he didn't care. But he heard about it when they got home!! Usually from church. He loved to entertain the children, so if at church there were children there he would get up and sing his song "I Aint Going to Let Ol Satan Turn Me Around!" And he gave it his ALL!! He shared his testimony everywhere he went of how the Lord saved him. And he was faithful to the end. He raised his hand praising the Lord just minutes before he took his last breathe. He didn't let Satan turn him around and now he is Glory bound singing his song the way only he could sing it. I will never forget the love and care he had toward my family and my boys and the 2 grchildren of mine that he loved so much, and they so loved him. It was an honor to know him, and I'm proud to say he was my stepdad, but more like a dad. Love you forever Jesse! Henry and Candy Gallet

“ I remember visiting Uncle Jesse and Pearl at their home in Kansas City many years ago when Peggy, David, Aaron, Elmer and Earnie were all little tots. Due to the Wilson family being scattered across the United States it has been hard to keep track of everyone. We know that Uncle Jesse was ready to meet his Lord and Savior and now rests in the arms of God. AMEN! - Joe Jr. - Colorado Springs, CO.
