“ Joan trained me as a meter reader in 1979. She was a wonderful boss and wise counselor to her group of meter readers. Her sense of humor was one of her nicest attributes. I will always have fond memories of Joan.

“ I met and worked with Joan at WD #1. We became good friends, when we all merged to the Renner facility. She was so ornery and fun to be around. I would visit with her and Becky most morning in her office, before work.

I am sorry that I did not hear of Joan's passing until this morning. RIP dear friend. May your family find peace and comfort in their memories. God Bless

“ I am so saddened this night to learn my dear friend Laura lost her Mother this morning... I am saddened for the whole family... May God keep all of YOU wrapped in his arms of love and comfort... I had never been able to meet Joan or Paul... I know YOU will all be happy to know she is NOT in physical pain any longer... May God Bless each of YOU and keep YOU in his care... I love each one of YOU...

I am going to miss my dear friend. We use to go out late, have coffee, visit and watch people. We always had so much fun. My love and prayers go out to Laura and Paul and will keep you in my prayers. It is comforting to know that she is at peace and with God.
