“ I think of you often. My memories of the physical are the smell of coffee, one-eyed jacks, your blue eyes, your toothy smile, pantyhose hanging to dry in the bathroom, the world's best roast beef sliced with an electric knife, knitting needles, yarn, patterns, double mint spearmint gum, bubbles, deviled ham & butter sandwiches, your laugh, your distinct voice, the beautiful white bedspread on your bed. I remember your wit, your organization, your strive for excellence in all you did. I wish I could talk to you now, as an adult. I want to know what you thought & how you felt. I know you were wise. You were wise because you looked to God for wisdom. I know you prayed for me. I love God now too. I look forward to seeing you again. As for now, I miss you. Grandma, I miss you more than I can stand it today.

“ I am sorry to hear about the loss of your dear loved one. Please accept my condolences at this painful time. Losing a loved one is distressing and as comfort is needed from family and friends, we have assurance from the Bible that "death will be swallowed up forever" at Isaiah 25:8. It is my hope your family will find strength to endure during the days ahead.

“ Dear Skip and Leslea... so sorry to hear of your moms passing. What a treasure of a Christian example!! I have such fond memories of her "mentoring" words to me as a young woman..I can just see a huge smile on Mel's face as they are both finally in the presence of Jesus. may Gods Peace surround you. HIS Love
