“ I met you Joann when Venesa and Steve lived in Quincy, MA a few years ago. It was a hot day but we decided to go shopping in Boston and you agreed. But you toughed it out! You were a real trooper! And a lovely person inside and out.

“ I met you twice, Joann, when Venesa and Steve lived in Quincy, MA. We did the shopping trip through Boston, but you were a trooper, because it was hot that day. I found you to be a lovely person, inside and out.

“ Delicious shrimp gumbo and red velvet cake will always be mixed in with your opinions and political views. You were one of a kind. Thank you for my wonderful Daddy. You did a great job on him. Love you, Grandma.

“ I can't ever remember a time that you weren't in my life. I could always count on you to tell me the truth even when I didn't want to hear it. I have so many favorite memories that it's hard to list just one but I have to say my absolute favorite was when just the two of us went fishing. I know you loved to fish and yet you were so patient with my 10 year old self. I asked a million questions and couldn't sit still but you let me be me and I know you enjoyed our time together too. Another favorite was when I helped you remodel your kitchen. We had alot of fun even though I get my stubbornness from you! I will miss your smile, macaroni salad at 4th of July and even your opinions but most of all I will miss you! I love you so much Grandma.
