“ It has taken a couple of days for me to be finish up and post this. I loved this man so dearly, and every time I sat down to type this, the tears flowed like water. Uncle Joe was one of 3 of my Mother's brother's that I cared about, but Uncle Joe was my Favorite and Aunt Maydene was my Favorite Aunt :) They were quite the pair, and so suited to each other. After he moved to Lead Hill, every time I called him, I always said--Is this my Favorite Uncle Joe, this is your Favorite Neice Pat. He would always reply Hello Sweetie. After he got his cell phone, he knew it was me by my phone number, so he would automatically answer Hello Sweetie, but I still had to say my line. I could write a novel of my favorite memories of this sweet man, anyone who knew him could. He was kind, loving, generous, and fun loving right to the end. BUT, if you crossed him or one of his children, look out, he would show you the door or window or whatever was nearby LOL !! He loved to sing Kareoke, and so did !! Tne last time I saw him, was in the Hospital just before going back to Sweet Life. The 2 days I spent there visiting him were so full of fun, laughter and reminising. He leaves such a hole in all our hearts. Jerry, Janet, Kathy & Jr. all know how my heart aches for them in their loss of their father. Love to you all,
Good-bye to my Favorite Uncle Joe
Your Favorite Neice Pat

“ I remember your Joe padlocking the dunebuggy to a tree so we couldnt drive it...but we did I picked the lock. Then we put it right back where it was. Lol I remember calling him No Ro because he went to the kitchen one morning to get a ROLL and there weren't any. So he left a note that said NO RO who ate them all. I loved your dad and mom. I spent alot of time at your house growing up. Going to Bullshulls Lake was so much fun every summer. I got sooo many mosquito bites one summer. I dont remeber if it was Janet or Kathy that put fingernail polish on them. We only had red. Joe laughed everytime he looked at me. I have only good memories of your parents.
God bless you all.

Thanks for your memories Laura. Yes I remember his poem, it was - No Ro, where did you go, Your Joe. He didn't know how to spell Roll.
