When Johnnie had to do some work at Bendix Corp an F.B.I. agent came to our neighborhood to do a background check. One of the neighbors told him that if the commies were coming up the hill she would want Johnnie beside her. Johnnie was a very hard worker and could think outside the box when the situation arose. He always knew how to fix just about anything at home whether it was a building, wiring, plumbing and etc. He was respected by his peers and much loved by his family.
