“ I remember John as a hard working truck driver and listening to some of his stories, I recall the day his heart failed him and the day he got a new heart, his journey was a difficult one at times and yet he never gave up, from the first day that I met him and Barbie , they have made me feel like family, Something that was priceless to me, since mine was so far away,John was a strong man with an incredible unending love for his family and he will certianly be missed, rest easy John, your work here is done ~Chris Schultz~

“ I grew up best friends with Lori, we were inseparable 🥰 My heart aches for you all. John was such a strong man. I have so many great memories of him. But there is one that I have tried to forget my whole life. Lol and it's when he caught me off guard with his famous paddle 😬 man could he swing that thing. I wanted to cry sooo bad. But John was so proud of himself as he made me sign my name to that board 😊
He was a great man that I'm glad I had the privilege of knowing. RIP John
All my love to the Braswell family.
