“ Such a wonderful, wonderful brother-in-law. And such a loving husband to my sister for almost 51 years. My memories center around children - his, (Mari and Jim) the grandchildren, and mine. Before Marilyn and Jack had children, I remember Jack crawling on the floor delighting my 18 month old son Mike with fun and frolic! Jack and I were both in the computer software business, and I remember many enjoyable discussions regarding the technology of the time and what could be possible in the future. Jack, you are missed.

“ I uploaded the below remembrance written by my sister Mari as she sat at my Dads bedside on Christmas Eve morning. It was part of the funeral Mass, and I think it perfectly articulates Dad and what he stood for. Mari is the greatest daughter Dad could have and he was so proud of her he could have burst. In St. Lukes, right after the event, Dads statement to everyone was "I want to talk to my daughter...."

Dad and Mari had a very special relationship that should be the envy of every father and child. Mari, Thank You. You were, and are, a great source of comfort.

Jim
