“ First, I am deeply sorrowed by your loss. I shared a virtual butterfly and virtual sunshine because, honestly I'm lost for words and as a hospice nurse I know there are no words. My tribute is how I knew, know and will remember Johnna; a social butterfly, a beautiful butterfly and pure sunshine, that smile!!!! My heart goes out to Johnna's entire family; birth, celestial, adopted, married, blended, extended..... May the Lord give you all peace, comfort, solace, and let your memories be your strength. I know we all have a lot of them!! Now, I share a PURPLE (Periwinkle) candle for the love and joy of Johnna's that shall continue to burn thru everyone she touched and that MIGHTY, MIGHTY J C HARMON HAWK, coolest head cheerleader I ever knew! REST IN HEAVEN JOHNNNA

“ Just want to say her Smile was larger than life. She had a presence to make you feel everything is going to be okay. Have fun and nothing can be that bad. Just want to say to Mr. and Mrs. Salazar many prayers and may the days ahead shine some light knowing she was an amazing daughter and friend, God bless you. She will be missed. It truly was a sad day to hear of her passing. Marc Somers class of 1986.

“ All smiles, smiles with intensity, what a wonderful person. Missed when you didn't see her for a short while and will truly be missed now, not only family but by those that Johnna allowed to witness her and her family life. God bless her on her journey and may God bless the family. I encourage you all to carry on with a smile, an intense smile, and when you do, you will be communing with Johnna. God bless.

“ Helena, I was so shocked to hear of your Mom's passing. I will forever remember her as Coach J, the coach of the Red Robin's volleyball team. Chelsea is my great-niece. She loved and respected you girls so much.

Because of that love and respect she was able to teach you girls not only how to play volleyball, but how to become the best girls you could be. You all are now young women and still living by the lessons she taught you. The women you all will become can, in part, be attributed to the things you learned from her.

She was a wonderful woman and will be greatly missed by so many, but none more than you, her daughter. She loved you so much.

You and your family will be in my prayers,

Aunt Pat (Bratcher), the great-aunt of Chelsea Gillespie

“ As soon as I heard this news, memories rushed in like a flood.. All of which were filled with tons of laughs, a few tears along the way as life happened. I can still hear her laugh as I am sure many can, although life separated us at times she was always so dear to my heart. I have the fondest memories from at least 10 yrs old and up. Your family is in our prayers. Hopefully this pic will make you smile, I couldn't post hers with that hair without putting myself out there too 😊.. Not sure where we were headed this night, but like all others I am sure we had a blast!!! Will love you always my friend! 😇 Joanna (Vasquez) Curtright
