“ I have many special memories of Joyce from my many years of working with Alternate Delivery for the Kansas City Star. She was a wonderful boss and friend. Chuck Evans and I thought the world of her. We both thought she was the best boss ever and a special person.

She believed in doing every thing the right way and trained Chuck and I to do the same. She was very patient with the carriers let and them know what her expectations were for delivering the papers. she was well liked by all the carriers.
