“ Judy changed my life for the better! She started my interest in nursing, when I was drifting and had no purpose in career or life really, in the 1970's. I always had questions for her about her nursing career. I went on from our friendship and got my BSN in nursing.

I worked in a hospital from 1975 to 12/20 when I retired. I loved nursing and helping people, never thought I would retire, but grandchildren were calling me. I always admired Judy's artistic talents and her nonjudgmental attitude for everyone she helped. She was a very special and talented person.

I wish I could of talked to her before she passed, and told her how I feel.

I say prayers for her and her family now.
