Julia was always very good to me and I am grateful for the sweet memories I have of her when I was a child. She was always in "teaching" mode. Teaching us how to cook, how to clean, how to iron. And always and most importantly, advising us to go to church. Be kind to one another. Be like Christ. I will always remember her teachings. I always looked forward to going to her house on Sundays. Never knew who was going to be there, always knew there was something good to eat. Lots of laughter in her house. Her presence will be missed. We can honor her by trying to live like her.

“ Julia was always good to me as a child. I have many sweet memories of her. She was always in teaching mode. Teaching us to cook, how to clean, how to iron. Always working, seems like. Most importantly she encouraged us to go to church. Be Christ like. To love one another. She was a blessing to the world and your family. She will be missed. We can honor her by trying to live like her. Thank you, Julia.
