“ Lindsey & Leon, my very deepest heartfelt condolences to you. I have such great memories of being your neighbor. Your family was always special in my heart & I appreciated how good you were to my kids. Justin had just mentioned me in a message & I so hold those kind words even closer now. No words are quite adequate enough to cover your grief, but may I attempt to say I'm genuinely sorry for your sorrow & I love you both with the love of Jesus. HE can give you peace. 💜✝️

“ Justin and I was just online talking about the good ol' days when we lived next door, and how sweet that time was. Heartfelt neighbors. I would come over and watch Elvira while Justin and his family were away. I have fond memories, long-lasting memories; Justin playing rough, and always getting in trouble, Lindsay and I doing make overs with Teresa, and Leon always making sure that the house and yard was great, and his motorcycle shining. We were the kind of neighbors to walk over to ask for sugar, and or eggs and vice versa. I love this whole familia, and am very saddened by this loss. Grieving doesn't get easier as I age, I just cling to my Savior even tighter. Fall at his feet a little quicker. My thoughts are near and covering this familia during this time. The Briones Familia loves you all.
