“ My condolences to Kathy's family and many friends. I still cannot believe she is gone. It broke my heart to hear of her passing. I met Kathy 30 years ago at JCPenney's Outlet Store. Even though I didn't see her very often, whenever I would see her, it was if no time had passed. I can still see her smile and hear her voice. She was one of a kind. RIP Kathy, we miss you.

“ My condolences to Kathy Lee's family. She'll be missed greatly. She spent a great deal of her time with my family. Especially my sister Monica.....she had patience to help my sister & just be her friend. Our family had her at most of our family events big & small. She was the additional sister I didn't know existed but needed. Our hearts are breaking.

“ Our Deepest Sympathy & love go out to Kathy's family. May God heal the pain in our hearts knowing that she's up in Heaven with love ones. She's looking down & watching over us. Not only were you a very good friend but you were like family. We will always remember your crazy ways & how to have a good time. You always tried to make time for everyone and didn't have a selfish bone in your body. I always thought that you had a "Doris Day" smile and that it lit up the room. You will always be in our hearts, thoughts & prayers. Rest In Peace our Angel Friend. We will Truly miss you, The Aguilar Sisters, Liz & Gloria
